A quick route from notice → practise → speak

YOUR LEARNING MAP

Use the workbook in short, repeatable sessions.

You can work alone, with a tutor, or with a speaking partner. Choose one page at a time rather than trying to finish everything in one sitting.

1 Notice	2 Learn	3 Practise	4 Speak	5 Reflect
-------------	------------	---------------	------------	--------------

1 • Notice

Read the model language. Circle a phrase you could use this week.

2 • Learn

Say key phrases aloud. Focus on meaning before speed.

3 • Practise

Complete the guided task. Change one detail to make it yours.

4 • Speak

Use the role-play cards. Try once with notes, then once without.

Quick win

Aim for one useful phrase you can actually say in real life today. Small, repeated practice beats one long session.

VOCABULARY THAT DOES A JOB

Learn the phrase, then make it personal.

Tip: do not memorize isolated words only. Notice the whole phrase, the situation, and one example sentence.

Word / phrase	Meaning	Model sentence	Practice note appointment	a planned meeting at a specific time	I have an appointment at three.	Services / work.
afford	have enough money or time for something	I can't afford to replace it yet.	Daily life.
prefer	like one option more than another	I prefer online meetings.	Opinions.
convenient	easy and suitable for your needs	The location is convenient.	Practical adjective.
recommend	suggest something as a good choice	Would you recommend this course?	Useful question.
available	free or ready to be used	Are you available tomorrow?	Work / social.
manage	succeed in doing something	I managed to finish it.	Everyday achievement.
reasonable	fair and not excessive	That sounds like a reasonable price.	Negotiation.

Speak it!

Choose three phrases. Say each one with a different detail: person, place, time or reason.

Conversation model

Notice how the speakers keep the exchange moving

A CONVERSATION YOU CAN BORROW

Read once for meaning. Read again aloud. Then swap one detail.

A

How was your week?

Busy, but manageable. I finally finished a task I'd been putting off.

Nice! What helped?

B

I made a short plan and focused on one priority at a time.

That makes sense. Do you feel less stressed now?

B

Definitely. I also made time for something I enjoy.

Notice & borrow

Underline one phrase that keeps the conversation moving (for example: "How about you?"). Write your own version below.
