

LEARNING HUB

Premium English Learning Resources

Everyday English for Japanese Speakers

Conversation & Speaking Practice • English + Japanese support

TEENS & ADULTS • ESL • SELF-STUDY / TUTORING

ENGLISH

日本語

learninghubtutoring.com

VISIT THE LEARNING HUB

02

Start here

A quick route from notice → practise → speak

YOUR LEARNING MAP

Use the workbook in short, repeatable sessions.

You can work alone, with a tutor, or with a speaking partner. Choose one page at a time rather than trying to finish everything in one sitting.

1 Notice	2 Learn	3 Practise	4 Speak	5 Reflect
-------------	------------	---------------	------------	--------------

1 • Notice

Read the model language. Circle a phrase you could use this week.

2 • Learn

Say key phrases aloud. Focus on meaning before speed.

3 • Practise

Complete the guided task. Change one detail to make it yours.

4 • Speak

Use the role-play cards. Try once with notes, then once without.

Quick win

Aim for one useful phrase you can actually say in real life today. Small, repeated practice beats one long session.

VOCABULARY THAT DOES A JOB

Learn the phrase, then make it personal.

Tip: do not memorize isolated words only. Notice the whole phrase, the situation, and one example sentence.

Phrase	Target-language meaning	Model	Use it when...
catch up	近況を話す	Let's catch up after class.	Use it for friendly conversations.
Could you say that again?	もう一度言っていただけますか？	Could you say that again, please?	Polite repair phrase.
I'm not sure.	よく分かりません／確信がありません。	I'm not sure, but I can check.	Softens uncertainty.
That sounds good.	それはよさそうです。	That sounds good. Let's do it.	Natural way to agree.
What do you recommend?	何がおすすめてですか？	What do you recommend for a first visit?	Useful in cafés and shops.
I'm looking forward to it.	楽しみにしています。	I'm looking forward to the trip.	Common future-positive phrase.
Could you give me a hand?	手伝っていただけますか？	Could you give me a hand with this?	Friendly request.
I see what you mean.	言いたいことは分かります。	I see what you mean.	Useful in discussion.

Speak it!

Choose three phrases. Say each one with a different detail: person, place, time or reason.

04

Conversation model

Notice how the speakers keep the exchange moving

A CONVERSATION YOU CAN BORROW

Read once for meaning. Read again aloud. Then swap one detail.

A

Hi! How's your week going?

B

Pretty good. I've been busy with work, but I'm looking forward to the weekend.

A

That sounds good. Do you have any plans?

B

I'm meeting a friend. How about you?

A

I'm not sure yet. I might stay home and catch up on some reading.

B

That sounds relaxing. We should catch up sometime next week.

Notice & borrow

Underline one phrase that keeps the conversation moving (for example: "How about you?"). Write your own version below.

05

Guided practice

Build your answer before you speak

SENTENCE FRAMES

Complete the frame, then say the whole sentence aloud.

01

I usually ___ after ___ because ___.

02

I'm looking forward to ___ because ___.

03

Could you ___, please?

04

I'm not sure about ___, but ___.

05

I'd like to ___ this weekend.

Your version:

QUICK-CHECK CHALLENGE

Try it without looking back at the vocabulary page.

Match	Term / concept	Meaning
1	catch up	A. ask for repetition
2	I'm not sure	B. show uncertainty
3	What do you recommend?	C. ask for a suggestion
4	Could you say that again?	D. spend time talking after not seeing someone

Upgrade it

Take one basic sentence you could say and make it more natural by adding a reason, time, contrast or follow-up question.

REAL-WORLD SPEAKING PROMPTS

For tutoring: give one card to each learner. For self-study: set a 60–90 second timer.

CARD 01 • A new classmate

Introduce yourself and ask two natural follow-up questions.

Challenge: ask one follow-up question.

CARD 02 • A café choice

Ask for a recommendation and explain what you prefer.

Challenge: ask one follow-up question.

CARD 03 • A misunderstanding

Ask someone to repeat and then confirm what you heard.

Challenge: ask one follow-up question.

CARD 04 • Weekend plans

Talk about your plans and ask the other person about theirs.

Challenge: ask one follow-up question.

ENGLISH + TARGET-LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Use the translation to understand the function.
Then practise the English without reading the translation.

English	Target language	When to use it
Could you speak a little more slowly, please?	もう少しゆっくり話していただけますか？	Real-life conversation
How long have you been studying English?	英語をどのくらい勉強していますか？	Real-life conversation
I'd like to make a reservation.	予約をしたいです。	Real-life conversation
Could you recommend something popular?	人気のものをおすすめしていただけますか？	Real-life conversation
I'm afraid I didn't catch that.	すみません、聞き取れませんでした。	Real-life conversation

Usage note

Politeness is about context, not only grammar. In unfamiliar or professional situations, choose a respectful request such as "Could you...?" rather than a very direct command.

Make one sentence with your favourite phrase:

INDEPENDENT TASK

Choose one prompt and speak or write for 2 minutes.

PROMPT 01

Describe a place you enjoy visiting.

Use: one target phrase + one follow-up question.

PROMPT 02

Explain one thing that helps you learn English.

Use: one target phrase + one follow-up question.

PROMPT 03

Talk about a weekend you would like to plan.

Use: one target phrase + one follow-up question.

THE 3-LEVEL CHALLENGE

Repeat the same task three ways.

LEVEL 1 • Clear

Give a short answer using one target phrase.

LEVEL 2 • Natural

Add a reason, example or follow-up question.

LEVEL 3 • Flexible

Respond to an unexpected change or disagreement.

Your challenge prompt

GO

60–90 seconds • 1 target phrase • 1 follow-up question • 1 natural repair phrase if you get stuck

A friend cancels your plan. Respond naturally, suggest another time, and ask a follow-up question.

MINI REVIEW QUIZ

Try first. Then check the answer key at the end.

1

Choose the more natural phrase: "Repeat." / "Could you say that again, please?"

Answer:

2

Complete: "It ___ on the situation." (depends / dependent)

Answer:

3

What should you do when you do not understand? Name one polite repair phrase.

Answer:

4

Add a follow-up question to: "I prefer studying in the morning."

Answer:

5

Use one target phrase in a sentence about your own life.

Answer:

6

Give one reason for your opinion on a familiar topic.

Answer: _____

CHECK & IMPROVE

Use the key to notice patterns, not just to score yourself.

Task	Suggested answer
Matching activity	1-D, 2-B, 3-C, 4-A
Mini review 1	B – the polite request is more natural.
Mini review 2	A – “It depends on...” is the natural phrase.
Mini review 3	Examples: “Could you say that again, please?” / “I’m afraid I didn’t catch that.”
Mini review 4	Example: “How about you?”
Mini review 5–6	Answers vary. Strong answers use a target phrase and a clear reason.

Tutor note

For speaking tasks, prioritize meaning, intelligibility and useful language. Correct only the errors that matter most for the learner’s goal.

MY PRACTICE TRACKER

Tick a box each time you complete a focused practice round.

Skill	Round 1	Round 2	Round 3	Notes
Vocabulary
Guided speaking
Independent task
Challenge mode

Confidence check

- ☐ I can start a conversation without overthinking.
- ☐ I can ask for clarification politely.
- ☐ I can use new vocabulary in a real sentence.
- ☐ I can keep speaking when I need more time.

One skill I want to improve next:

Thank you

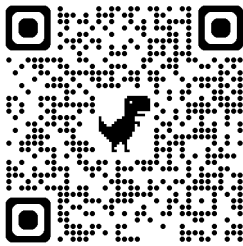

A little practice, used often, goes a long way.

THANK YOU FOR CHOOSING LEARNING HUB

We hope this resource makes English practice feel more practical, focused and enjoyable.

Visit the Learning Hub

Explore tutoring, learning support and additional educational resources at learninghubbutoring.com.

SAVE THIS PAGE

Keep the workbook handy and return to one short activity at a time.

Digital product ? Physical copy available on request