A quick route from notice → practise → speak

YOUR LEARNING MAP

Use the workbook in short, repeatable sessions.

You can work alone, with a tutor, or with a speaking partner. Choose one page at a time rather than trying to finish everything in one sitting.

1 Notice	2 Learn	3 Practise	4 Speak	5 Reflect
-------------	------------	---------------	------------	--------------

1 • Notice

Read the model language. Circle a phrase you could use this week.

2 • Learn

Say key phrases aloud. Focus on meaning before speed.

3 • Practise

Complete the guided task. Change one detail to make it yours.

4 • Speak

Use the role-play cards. Try once with notes, then once without.

Quick win

Aim for one useful phrase you can actually say in real life today. Small, repeated practice beats one long session.

VOCABULARY THAT DOES A JOB

Learn the phrase, then make it personal.

Tip: do not memorize isolated words only. Notice the whole phrase, the situation, and one example sentence.

Word / phrase	Meaning	Model sentence	Practice note
That makes sense.	I understand your point.	That makes sense. Let's try it.	Useful agreement.
Actually, ...	used to gently correct or add information	Actually, I meant Tuesday.	Soft correction.
It depends.	the answer changes according to the situation	It depends on the price.	Flexible natural answer.
How about you?	asks the other person the same question	I like hiking. How about you?	Keeps a conversation going.
Fair enough.	I accept that point.	Fair enough. I hadn't considered that.	Useful response to disagreement.
Let me think.	gives you time to answer	Let me think for a second.	Natural thinking phrase.
By the way, ...	introduces a new related topic	By the way, did you email Sam?	Topic shift.
No worries.	it's okay / no problem	No worries. We can reschedule.	Friendly reassurance.

Speak it!

Choose three phrases. Say each one with a different detail: person, place, time or reason.

Conversation model

Notice how the speakers keep the exchange moving

A CONVERSATION YOU CAN BORROW

Read once for meaning. Read again aloud. Then swap one detail.

A

How was your week?

B

Busy, but manageable. I finally finished a task I'd been putting off.

Nice! What helped?

B

I made a short plan and focused on one priority at a time.

That makes sense. Do you feel less stressed now?

B

Definitely. I also made time for something I enjoy.

Notice & borrow

Underline one phrase that keeps the conversation moving (for example: "How about you?"). Write your own version below.

05

Guided practice

Build your answer before you speak

SENTENCE FRAMES

Complete the frame, then say the whole sentence aloud.

01

I agree because ____.

02

It depends on ____.

03

Actually, I meant ____.

04

How about ____?

05

Let me think for a second. I would say ____.

QUICK-CHECK CHALLENGE

Try it without looking back at the vocabulary page.

Match	Term / concept	Meaning
1	Actually, ...	A. topic shift
2	It depends.	B. flexible answer
3	Fair enough.	C. soft correction
4	By the way, ...	D. accept another point

Upgrade it

Take one basic sentence you could say and make it more natural by adding a reason, time, contrast or follow-up question.

REAL-WORLD SPEAKING PROMPTS

For tutoring: give one card to each learner. For self-study: set a 60–90 second timer.

CARD 01 • At a café

You meet a friend you have not seen for months. Catch up, ask two follow-up questions, and make a plan.

Challenge: ask one follow-up question.

CARD 02 • A change of plan

Your friend wants to meet at 7:00, but you need 8:00. Negotiate politely.

Challenge: ask one follow-up question.

CARD 03 • A new class

You are meeting a classmate for the first time. Introduce yourself and ask about their goals.

Challenge: ask one follow-up question.

CARD 04 • A small problem

A delivery arrives late. Explain the problem without sounding aggressive and ask what can be done.

Challenge: ask one follow-up question.

NATURAL RESPONSE BUILDER

Use a simple 3-step pattern: answer → detail → follow-up.

Step	Example	Your version
Answer	I prefer working in the morning.
Detail	I can focus before my day gets busy.
Follow-up	How about you?

Speak it!

Give your answer twice: first slowly and clearly, then again at a natural pace.

INDEPENDENT TASK

Choose one prompt and speak or write for 2 minutes.

PROMPT 01

Describe a recent change in your routine.

Use: one target phrase + one follow-up question.

PROMPT 02

Give your opinion on a simple everyday topic.

Use: one target phrase + one follow-up question.

PROMPT 03

Tell a short story with a surprising ending.

Use: one target phrase + one follow-up question.

THE 3-LEVEL CHALLENGE

Repeat the same task three ways.

LEVEL 1 • Clear

Give a short answer using one target phrase.

LEVEL 2 • Natural

Add a reason, example or follow-up question.

LEVEL 3 • Flexible

Respond to an unexpected change or disagreement.

Your challenge prompt

GO

60–90 seconds • 1 target phrase • 1 follow-up question • 1 natural repair phrase if you get stuck

Someone gives an opinion you partly disagree with. Acknowledge the point, give your view, and keep the tone friendly.

MINI REVIEW QUIZ

Try first. Then check the answer key at the end.

1

Choose the more natural phrase: "Repeat." / "Could you say that again, please?"

Answer:

2

Complete: "It ___ on the situation." (depends / dependent)

Answer:

3

What should you do when you do not understand? Name one polite repair phrase.

Answer:

4

Add a follow-up question to: "I prefer studying in the morning."

Answer:

5

Use one target phrase in a sentence about your own life.

Answer:

6

Give one reason for your opinion on a familiar topic.

Answer: _____

CHECK & IMPROVE

Use the key to notice patterns, not just to score yourself.

Task	Suggested answer
Matching activity	1-D, 2-B, 3-C, 4-A
Mini review 1	B – the polite request is more natural.
Mini review 2	A – “It depends on...” is the natural phrase.
Mini review 3	Examples: “Could you say that again, please?” / “I’m afraid I didn’t catch that.”
Mini review 4	Example: “How about you?”
Mini review 5–6	Answers vary. Strong answers use a target phrase and a clear reason.

Tutor note

For speaking tasks, prioritize meaning, intelligibility and useful language. Correct only the errors that matter most for the learner’s goal.

Confidence check

- ☐ I can start a conversation without overthinking.
- ☐ I can ask for clarification politely.
- ☐ I can use new vocabulary in a real sentence.
- ☐ I can keep speaking when I need more time.

One skill I want to improve next:

Thank you

A little practice, used often, goes a long way.
