A quick route from notice → practise → speak

YOUR LEARNING MAP

Use the workbook in short, repeatable sessions.

You can work alone, with a tutor, or with a speaking partner. Choose one page at a time rather than trying to finish everything in one sitting.

1 Notice	2 Learn	3 Practise	4 Speak	5 Reflect
-------------	------------	---------------	------------	--------------

1 • Notice

Read the model language. Circle a phrase you could use this week.

2 • Learn

Say key phrases aloud. Focus on meaning before speed.

3 • Practise

Complete the guided task. Change one detail to make it yours.

4 • Speak

Use the role-play cards. Try once with notes, then once without.

Quick win

Aim for one useful phrase you can actually say in real life today. Small, repeated practice beats one long session.

VOCABULARY THAT DOES A JOB

Learn the phrase, then make it personal.

Tip: do not memorize isolated words only. Notice the whole phrase, the situation, and one example sentence.

Word / phrase	Meaning	Model sentence	Practice note
boarding pass	document/card used to board a flight	Where can I show my boarding pass?	Airport essential.
check in	register at a hotel or flight	I'd like to check in, please.	Travel verb.
reservation	a booking made in advance	I have a reservation under Lee.	Hotel/restaurant use.
platform	area where you board a train	Which platform is the train on?	Train travel.

delayed	late / happening later	Our flight is delayed.	Common travel problem.
Could I have... ?	polite request for an item	Could I have a bottle of water?	Restaurant/transport.

Speak it!

Choose three phrases. Say each one with a different detail: person, place, time or reason.

A CONVERSATION YOU CAN BORROW

Yes, that's right. The train leaves in about twenty minutes.

Great. Thanks for your help.

You're welcome. Have a good trip!

Notice & borrow

Underline one phrase that keeps the conversation moving (for example: "How about you?"). Write your own version below.
