Bella was a happy little bunny who lived in a beautiful meadow. She loved to hop around, play and make new friends.

One day, Bella saw her friend Toby the turtle trying to climb a small hill. He was carrying a big, heavy leaf, and he looked tired.

"Oh no! This leaf is so heavy," said Toby.

Bella quickly hopped over and said, "Let me help you!"

Together, Bella and Toby pushed and carried the leaf to the top of the hill. Toby smiled and said, "Thank you, Bella! You are such a kind friend!"

Bella smiled. "Helping others feels good," she said.

From that day on, Bella and Toby did many things together. They learned that even a small act of help can make a big difference!"
